

Hey! (SCHOOL/ORGANIZATION) supporters!

When you Buy a copy of

The Big Fun Guide to Tar Heel Country:

135+ Activities for Families in Chapel Hill, Carrboro,
Hillsborough, Pittsboro, and Points in Between!

by Erin Donoghue Baldwin; September,
2008; 176 pp; illus.; DRT Press; ISBN
978-1-933084-10-7; $13.95

the publisher will donate
HALF the cover price to (SCHOOL/ORGANIZATION)!

Go to www.drtpress.com &
use coupon code drtp_XXXX_0001_a_0 at check-out.

All pre-publication orders will get FREE SHIPPING!

*The book's publication date is Sept. 15...all books will be mailed at this time.

Read what people have been saying about

The Big Fun Guide to Tar Heel Country:

"I laughed, I cried, I found the potty. . ."Truly a most valuable resource; my kids and I will never be bored again! Erin has listed the great attractions we knew about, but she has also discovered some quirky and adventurous activities we never dreamed existed in our area. I also appreciated the parent perspective - information on food, strollers, and potties - which is information much more helpful to have before a crisis strikes. Forget receiving blankets and teddy bears, from now on my standard baby shower gift will be The Big Fun Guide to Tar Heel Country!

-- Laura Baxley, Chapel Hill mom of 2

One of my all time favorite sayings is, "The hardest thing to see is right under your nose." As a resident of this oh-so-unique area for two decades, I was blown away by how many wonderful things there are to do in this part of the country "right under my nose!"

Erin Donoghue Baldwin's book is a visual, informational, delectable delight of the view of our very own backyard and creates a great guide to the best this area has to offer the big, the little, and the in between of us. As a preschool teacher, a mom, and a grandmom, I can only think of three words, "FIELDTRIP, FIELDTRIP, FIELDTRIP!"

--- Kathy V., Chatham County mom, grandma, and pre-school teacher